

Funds still available for 2014 State Revolving Fund Programs

January 9, 2014

Loan funds are still available for financial assistance in both the Clean Water and Drinking Water State Revolving Fund (CWSRF and DWSRF) programs. Additionally, there is limited loan forgiveness remaining for very small system projects in the DWSRF and for disadvantaged projects under both the CWSRF and DWSRF programs.

The CWSRF program is currently offering non-equivalency loans with an interest rate reduction of 120 basis points from the current market rate.

The DWSRF program is currently offering loans with an interest rate reduction of 125 basis points from the current market rate.

Please visit these webpages for general information on the CWSRF and DWSRF programs and to review current lending rates.

For additional information on these funding programs, please contact the following TWDB staff:

CWSRF Program Specialist: Mark Evans (512) 463-8510

DWSRF Program Specialist: Marvin Chaney (512) 463-8750